

DOESN'T LIKE
CITY'S GRADE

W. P. Noble Gets Another Injunction.

Says City's Servants Damaged Property During His Absence.

Serious Damage Done to Trees After Assurance That They Would Not Be Injured.

W. P. Noble obtained another injunction against Salt Lake City yesterday. This was signed by Judge Armstrong. It restrains the city's servants from plowing up or removing the cement sidewalk in front of Mr. Noble's house at the corner of Brigham and H streets.

Mr. Noble's complaint is that the new sidewalk grade established by the city in front of his house will injure the value of the property. He says that the new grade at the west side of his ground on H street, has placed the property higher than the sidewalk. Before the work was

He sets forth in his complaint that he was misinformed about the work. One of the city's servants told him that the excavation would not injure his line of shade trees to any extent; that the excavation would be only deep enough to lay down

BOTH BURRELLS CONVICTED.
Second Brother Found Guilty by Jury

Yesterday.

Both Edmund and Walter Burrell now stand convicted of the crime of robbery. Edmund was declared guilty as charged in the complaint by the jury in Judge Armstrong's court yesterday. This trial did not take so long as that of the first brother, Walter. The defense concentrated most of its efforts on the first case.

It was found that the brothers took it from John F. Kirk at his grocery store on the night of November 26, 1934. The two robbers will be sentenced by Judge

DUE TO OWN NEGLIGENCE.
Verdict for Defendant in Ross Dam age Suit.

In the case of White H. Ross vs. the Southern Pacific, Judge Marshall yesterday instructed the jury to bring in a verdict for the defendant, with costs of suit to be charged against the plaintiff. Ross was suing the Southern Pacific for $30,000 for personal injuries, but after hearing the evidence, which showed that the accident through which Ross was injured was due to his own negligence, the jury was ordered to bring in a verdict for the defendant.

Will or Mrs. Beattie.

Mrs. Beulah Augusta Woodruff Beattie's will was filed for probate in the county clerk's office at Smith and Wilford Woodruff Beattie, one of the sons of the deceased, as the executor. The value of the estate is estimated at $100,000. The value of which is not stated in the will.

The testatrix leaves her household and personal effects to her son. One piece of property in Salt Lake City goes to her grandchild, Beulah N. Byrom. The balance of the estate is to be paid for her daughter, Florence E. Beattie, and her grandchild, Beulah N. Byrom. The latter is a cadette of age in November, 1921, when she will be 25 years of age.

Wants to Examine Books.

Because he could not examine the company's books, Walter K. Wetherbee, a stockholder of the Utah Electric Light and Power Co., filed a complaint yesterday against Carl Melander, president of the company.

Tariff Rates for Colorado Points.
CHICAGO, Jan. 21.—At a meeting of passenger officials of the Western roads today it was determined that hereafter all party business from Colorado common points must move on tariff rates.

Court Notes.
Judge Armstrong granted Nels Rasmussen a divorce from Della Rasmussen yesterday.

Damages for $15,000 are asked from the Rio Grande Western Railway company by Robert C. Yorgason. He was injured on August 2, 1904, when in the employ of the railroad as a brakeman. He was coupling two cars together at Murray and got caught between them. They were loaded with ore and his arm was badly crushed and mangled. He alleges that the company is at fault because no notice was given of the defective condition of

IN HONOR OF A UTAH POET.

An interesting meeting of the Daughters of the Utah Pioneers was held yesterday at the home of Mrs. Maria Y. Douglass. The guest of honor was Mrs. Eliza H. Snow, who married a pioneer of Utah. Mrs. Snow only the club members were present, but also a number of ladies guests, some of whom had known the pioneer Mrs. Bethsabee Smith, Mrs. Margaret Pearce post, revealing her character as she was known by association. Some of her poems were read, and the club members joined in singing some of the well-known Latter-day Saint's hymns written by her.

TEA

Go by the book you find in our package, and have such tea as will make you drink more.

Your grocer returns your money if you don't like it.
Schilling's Best.

10